

Paragon Collection Finish & Color Guide

Door Styles

Salida The classic shaker. Clean rail-and-stile proportions that read as timeless whether you paint it Pure White or stain it. Available in paint and stain.

Valencia A refined vertical grain slab door style with slightly elevated proportions — the style that photographs beautifully in listings and satisfies discerning buyers. Available in paint and stain.

Keystone Bold, structured shaker with strong visual weight. For buyers who want a kitchen that makes a statement. Available in paint and stain. ♦ New

Bronco Warm shaker character with a slightly rustic edge — perfect for mountain homes, transitional spaces, and buyers who want personality without going full custom. Available in paint and stain. ♦ New

Stockholm A full slab vertical grain in Textured TFM (thermofused laminate) — the modern, minimalist choice for buyers who want a European-inspired look with Colorado durability. Available in 8 TFM finishes.

Finish Options

Stain	Barley, Wheat, Mocha, Cinnamon, Graphite, Pepper

Paint	Pure White, Stone White, Accessible Beige, Repose Grey, Chelsea Grey, Sage Green, Urbane Bronze

TFM	Pearl White, Morning Fog, Grey Echo, Coastal, Cannella Rustik, Serotina, Midnight Run, Sepia Walnut

The TFM line — used exclusively on the Stockholm door — deserves its own spotlight. Tharp sources these panels from StevensWood, one of North America's leading suppliers of European-trend textured thermofused laminate. The result is a finish that captures the visual depth and warmth of real wood grain with the resilience of a high-performance surface. Cannella Rustik and Midnight Run have become two of the most-requested finishes in the entire Paragon line.
